As Head of Proposals you will be expected to build, inspire, mentor, lead and build a talented team, working closely with other commercial teams, to provide proposals of the highest quality, proposals that are eloquent, reflect the clients' needs and support business success. Your contribution will be both creative and articulate, with the opportunity to express written flair.

Reporting to the Senior Vice President Commercial Development, you will be a key member of the global commercial management team. Critical to your success will be your ability to support and develop others, work closely and passionately with all commercial teams and play a key role in helping to expand new business opportunities within established accounts and prospective new clients. You will oversee the Proposal Development process, working with clients, and coordinate with other business leaders and subject matter experts to ensure client satisfaction and successfully securing new business.

The Head of Proposals will help to develop outstanding customer relationships, build brand value and work closely with other members of the business to ensure the continued provision of proposals that exceed customer expectations.

The successful candidate will have a successful track record of success within CRO Proposal Development and team leadership, able to inspire creativity, combined with outstanding communication skills and cultural awareness.

The Head of Proposals will have an adaptable and flexible style of collaborating with key stakeholders, having the ability to quickly gain credibility, influence and partner with business leaders and customers.

This is a unique opportunity to join a highly entrepreneurial and unique business.

You will be encouraged to think and work creatively, to challenge traditional thinking and to bring creative solutions and to inspire others.

Every day will be different; will bring fresh challenges and the opportunity to make a personal contribution to the growth of the business.
