

Chief Commercial Officer

Ref: PSL4125
Canada

Attractive Salary
Commensurate with experience

This is an exceptional opportunity to play a key role in the strategic future of an innovative Biotechnology Company, leading their commercial activities globally as they launch their first product.

Our client brings a highly innovative approach towards vaccine and drug development, developing novel platforms and technology, challenging traditional approaches, to bring to the market vaccine and therapeutic products quicker, more safely and delivering better outcomes for patients.

We are seeking an experienced Chief Commercial Officer capable of providing leadership, direction and vision with the aptitude to drive commercial growth and excellence, as the company looks to launch its first product globally.

You will be an innovative commercial leader, working directly with The Board, to establish and oversee the successful direction, planning and execution of company policies, objectives, initiatives and deliverables.

You will possess the strategic vision and approach, coupled to a positive, entrepreneurial, can-do attitude, able to lead and inspire others, delivering commercial success of the highest quality. You will bring outstanding experience leading:

- Life Cycle Marketing Strategies
- Competitor Awareness
- Pre-Launch Development
- Driving Early Launch Plans
- Global Product Launches
- Product Commercialisation
- Developing New Markets and Territories
- Maximising Product Value and Profitability

The Chief Commercial Officer will ultimately be responsible for the commercial success of the company on a global basis.

As Chief Commercial Officer you will be expected to have extremely strong marketing and business development expertise, combined with the ability to succeed at a strategic, tactical and operational level, with excellent global experience and cultural sensitivity. You will bring outstanding internal and external communication skills, leadership and an inclusive pro-active approach.

This is a rare opportunity to take a key role and be a significant contributor to the success of a well-positioned, well-financed growth stage Biotechnology Company with an exciting future and considerable capability of delivering significant change to patients' lives.
